Public Hearing- Sign App for Green Mountain Diner:

Jeanne DiBattisto voiced that she is against making an exception on the sign ordinance. She felt that if we made this one exception then we would have to make an exception to all.

Bob Wing stated that the provision of no logos has been in the sign ordinance since 2002.

Harvey Dorr stated that he felt if the Selectboard made an exception for this particular part of the ordinance then they would have to make exceptions to other parts of the ordinance as well.

The Administrative Assistant received five emails from residents of the Town of Bradford stating that they are against changing the sign ordinance. There was only one individual who stated they did not care either way.

Ed Morrison, the owner of Green Mountain Diner asked the Selectboard if they denied his sign ordinance application if they would be telling Aubuchon Hardware to take down their Benjamin Moore sign.

The Selectboard stated they would.

The meeting hearing adjourned at 6:30 p.m.
